YOUNG ARCHIBALD PORTRAIT COMPETITION

The Newcastle Regional Art Gallery is hosting the Archibald prize this year and are holding a local competition for children. Merewether Heights Public School is going to enter the competition. We will host our competition at school, in an exhibition, in the hall, on Tuesday 10th April. All children will submit an entry and 10 winners will be forwarded on to the art gallery.

Please come along, enjoy our exhibition and vote for your favourite. The hall will be open from 9am until 4pm for you to visit.

STAGE 3 SYDNEY EXCURSION REPORT

Last week years 5 and 6 went on an excursion to Sydney. We visited Chinatown and learnt about their health foods like shark fin, bird's nests (made out of saliva), sea cucumbers and abalone, which can cost up to $7000 a kg. At the Friendship Gardens we went on a treasure hunt and learnt about the zodiac. We ordered our lunch in an authentic Chinese food court, it was chaos but delicious! Our last stop was the Sydney Harbour Bridge which we walked over and enjoyed learning about its construction and we also loved the view!

EASTER HAT PARADE THURSDAY 29 MARCH

12.45 am	Easter raffle drawn.
